

July 14, 2023

Ald. Milele A. Coggs
(414) 286-2994

MEDIA ADVISORY

Alderwoman Coggs invites residents to Garfield's 502 R&B Festival

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs invites residents to attend the Garfield's 502 R&B Festival happening TOMORROW - Saturday, July 15. The festival takes place on W. Garfield Ave. between N. 4th and N. 7th St. from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Garfield's 502 R&B Festival continues a decades-long July tradition of free music, food vendors, and more in the Bronzeville District. The event is free and open to the public.

Hosted by Garfield's 502, the festival will bring together more than 20 live bands and more than 100 vendors offering food, novelties, and educational resources.

"The R&B Festival is an event proudly presented by the Wisconsin Black Chamber of Commerce, and it aims to foster peace and unity while showcasing the remarkable talent that is embodied in local businesses and musical artists," Alderwoman Coggs said. "I encourage everyone to come out on Saturday and enjoy everything the festival has to offer."

What: Garfield's 502 R&B Festival

When: TOMORROW - Saturday, July 15 (11 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.)

Where: W. Garfield Ave. from N. 4th to N. 7th

-30-